COURSE INFORMATION

This qualification reflects the role of workers in the community and/or residential setting who follow an individualised plan to provide person-centred support to people who may require support due to ageing. Work involves using discretion and judgement in relation to individual support as well as taking responsibility for own outputs.

This qualification is typically delivered over a duration of 7-8 months, including 120 hours of work placement in an aged care setting.

Upon completion of this qualification, students are eligible to apply for roles such as:

- Personal Carer
- Support Worker
- Respite Worker

"If you want to change your career or want a fresh start, this is the best place to start. If you have the desire to work, settle yourself in a good and respectful way, this training centre will help you to reach your ultimate goal. They will support you to find the best suitable job for you. The trainers are all professional, and will help you to finish your course on time without any delay".
